

We invite you to join us in helping the victims of sex trafficking. You can raise awareness by wearing a Freedom Chain, host a Box of Change Campaign, sponsor a Bag of Hope and tell your friends about of on Facebook and Twitter. Together, we can make a difference in a survivors life.

@Force4C

FORCE4COMPASSION

Learn more at www.f-4-c.org

FREEDOM CHAINS

By purchasing a Freedom Chain you are helping to fund shelters that provide medical care, psychological care, education and reintegration for the victims of sex trafficking. We wear the chains by choice because the victims do not have a choice. The black lava bead represents the darkness the victims are trapped in, the white pearl represents hope for their individual freedom and the end of slavery.

Facts on sex trafficking in the United States

- 13 is the average age a girl is forced into prostitution.
- 100 or less, is the number of beds available for victims of domestic trafficking.
- 3,287 women and children forced into human trafficking daily
- 200,000 US children enslaved in trafficking